hello

If this is your first time with us, welcome! Thank You for being our guest today. We're glad you're here.

In observance of Labor Day
the church office will be closed
Monday, September 7.

Announcements

Sonshine House: in need of men's and children's clothing, no ladies at this time. They are open Tuesday's from 1:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Cloth Masks*: beginning today, for those desiring a cloth mask, a sign-up sheet will be maintained at the Information Center. This allows the Sewing Ministry to make your mask gender-specific and allows them to better anticipate how many to make each week. Let's not forget to thank the Sewing Team for all that they do, and have done for Faith Village, throughout the pandemic.

Residents of communities severely affected by Hurricane Laura are being provided meals by Disaster Assistance, an organization sponsored by the Lake Jackson Church of Christ. Several FV members have assisted in their efforts at other locations in the past. Cost of providing these meals continues to increase - donations needed and very much appreciated. If you can help support this worthy effort, you can give your contribution to any one of the elders or to the church

As classes resume and our attendance and interaction increases, please keep in mind that masks are recommended when social distancing is not possible. Additional adult classes and further breakdown of the children's classes will begin as attendance and current conditions permit.

College & Young professionals

Scott Hollars & Kyle Redding will teach Wednesday evening, September 9, upstairs in the College Classroom (room 217). If you are in this age group and category, please join us at 7 p.m. for a wonderful evening of fellowship and studying God's Word.

Wednesday Evenings

We will be spending the next few Wednesday evenings discussing how members of growing congregations work together and serve one another. We will be looking at what we will call the "allelon" passages of the New Testament.

"Allelon" is the Greek pronoun that is generally translated "one another" in the text and means basically, "I serve you as you serve me". Join us as we explore the different ways that we can serve one another and grow our congregation.

Here are a few examples of "allelon" passages:

- John 13:34 - "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."
- Romans 12:10 - "Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves."
- Ephesians 4:2 - "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love."
- 1 John 4:7 - "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God."

Please keep the following in your prayers & thoughts:

Thanks & Gratitude

Dear Christian Friends at Faith Village. I'm over whelmed to hear from several of your members. It was so encouraging to me. I'm worshiping with Prestoncrest Church of Christ in Dallas, online each Sunday. I am 85 years old and live with my son and his wife. We have over 70,000 people with the covid virus in Dallas county, so I fell it necessary to stay in. I pray I can find a way to go to church when the pandemic is over. Prestoncrest is the nearest scriptural congregation - 30 miles - so keep me in your prayers. God bless you all. In Him, Jackie Frantz (mother of Niki Wallace)

Thank you to the two young men who helped me when I fell, helped me to my seat, and got me some band aids. Louise Saxton

Heartfelt love and thanks to all of my brothers & sisters who sent cards to my mother last week! She feels so involved and part of the Faith Village family. She is writing everybody back. In Christian love, Niki Wallace
