Thanks and Gratitude

-Dear Church family, how thankful I am for your visits, calls, texts, flowers, cards, and especially for your love and prayers. It was through your prayers and God's loving, healing care that I could experience the joy of being with you in Sunday's AM services and afterwards all the smiles, hugs, and encouraging words. Please keep me in your prayers as I go through therapy. Much love and hugs, Dot Green

-I just wanted to say a BIG thank you to everyone who has helped in so many ways after my shoulder surgery. Meals, rides, texts/calls, and most of all prayers. My family has been and continues to be blessed every day by our Faith Village family! Thank you so much for loving us and caring for us!! I hope the road to recovery is ready for me because I'm definitely ready for it! -Missy Wallace

-Correction to the sympathy notice I posted last week for the Keesee family. My sincere apologies for the confusion.

Please pray for Kreg and LaTonna Keesee, and the Keesee family, in the loss of Kreg's father, Bill Keesee, on October 13th. A graveside service honoring Bill's life was held Thursday, October 29, in the Meadow Cemetery, Meadow, Texas under the direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home in Wichita Falls.
